Support Groups

Services Offered:

Bereaved parents support group is a self-help organization offering friendship and understanding to bereaved parents. The purposes are to support and aid parents in the positive resolution of the grief experienced upon the death of their child, and to foster the physical and emotional health of bereaved parents and siblings.

The aims of a chapter are:

1. To offer support and friendship to any sorrowing parent, regardless of race creed, or economic situation.
2. To listen with understanding and provide friends whom may be called.
3. To provide sharing groups that meet monthly.
4. To give cognitive information about the grieving process through programs and library.
5. To provide acquaintance with bereaved parents whose sorrow has softened and who have found fresh hope and strength for living.
